

Firestone Tire and Rubber-Albany, Ga. 1983-1985: When Firestone discontinued operations in the Albany plant, Smith Surplus was contracted as one of the seven prime contractors involved in the closing down of the plant. Smith Surplus primary role involved dismantling and salvaging components related to the conveyer systems through the plant. In addition Smith Surplus sub-contracted with other prime contractors to provide dismantling and salvaging services.